Happy to attend that meeting. FYI over half have been paid now including all of TeAtatu. You are not getting paid in any order what so ever with the exception of people who stole from me or sold drugs from my stores. Another point I would make is by law I can tell you all to fuck off and I have not because I do think you all should get paid. As for the little fucker who commented on my car you will never get paid and Ollie because your in the list above your out to. So to summaries I will pay everyone unless they piss me off or steal shit. You guys are forgetting that took ten years to make my money and have lost it all I don't really feel sorry for the little fuckers who keep talking dirt.

As always you can always call or email me directly

why dont we arrange a meeting for sometime early next year. anyone who feels inclined to get their money back or atleast put up a fight can come. we could ask matt to come. and if he refuses to even give us the time of day, then we can discuss all the other options e.g., fair go, newspaper, lawyers etc... we'd need someone to mediate for fuck sake, because everyone seems to be bitching to each other here. dont take out your anger on your fellow ex hell folk, its not their fault. it is matts though. so does that sound good?? maybe like late jan or early feb when we are all most likely on holiday, an hopefully all in Auckland?

I hope you guys realize that the point I was making when I said Sophie got paid was that the inequalities of the Hell system we all worked under still exist and are prevalent in this process of our being paid out. If it was because of the connection between Dean and Geo then that is the harsh reality we have to face. Btw thats Matt for replying after your last awesome e-mail surely my response deserved some kind of replay perhaps in fact you could have detailed a meeting to discuss matters with us.

Of course she got paid because shes fondling around with someone a friend of Geordie. There has always been special treatment for certain individuals. If he had that money to pay off Sophie 1.2k, he could of easily paid off 3 people instead, make the angry mob a little smaller, or a better option: randomly (and I mean randomly, not ranked on looks or likeliness of sexual encounters) selected 12 individuals and paid each of them $100 to keep them happy-ish for a bit. I mean, would you rather have $100 or $0.

An interesting story I got told was that the likelihood of us seeing our money in the near future is completely unlikely due to all this other shit Matt is going through so don't hold your breath people or perhaps file a legal challenge to make sure the money is coming your way soon as possible hell if enough people get on board and the right good lawyer is found it could possibly be pretty cheap or free. Other then that I also heard that Sophie got paid because she dates Dean who is Geo's friend who was Matt's bestie who got told to list people in order of who got paid first it sounds too good to be true but hell all of this is too much really... SO kids what is the verdict? complain more and more or take action over this fucking shit situation? decisions decisions

We will get paid, just in no real order and without much communication but remember we will get paid, secondly people already have already been sorted out and yes that wasn't us and yes that sucks but it gives us hope that we are also going to be taken care of, lastly we are all in the same boat so though we haven't been sorted out they have been and what is it that makes us more needy then them? or is it just general greed associated with the act? Fuck it I don't know, but all I do know is that we will be taken care of but we do need more and that is a shout out to you Matt to organize a sit down with people and to discuss happenings thus to keep us up to date because mate people will appreciate it and might stop running their mouths off.

Also to people like Andrew Caie, nice to see you got paid! Was that before or after you jumped into a previous conversation and added your 'Slapped the fuck down' comment? So you have been paid, now jog on mate because this has nothing to do with you anymore.

im owed 2500 dollars and up till now havnt mentioned anything.

but as people are getting paid and the only way to get any kind of response is to bitch. heres my bitch.

i worked my arse off doing 60 hours a week at the end of my run with hell pizza ive paid for coke orders when there was no cash in the till and we had bad credit with them.

above and beyond the call of duty ide say.

with that amount of money owed to me i would love to be taken into consideration or at least to be of contacted by either geordie or matt. expecially after working so closely with them.

with the amount of money owed to me i doubt ill ever see any of it but for once ide like to be told either way would really appreciate an email back

keep fighting

Thats a good question actually, what is the determining factor of some people getting paid over others? For example what makes them more important then any other member of your former staff because correct me if I am wrong but giving Geordie control over who gets paid doesn't really amount to a fair position as in his current job he has ex Hell staff working for him and because of that fact they will be more likely to receive money over any one else.

Fair hardly but nothing as been fair since we lost our jobs months ago and have been sitting pretty within this silence from you for months, no e-mails just checking in and reporting on status up-dates.

One more question, do you think it's possible that by ignoring us and not doing what it is you are legally required to do will help the situation and did you think we would forget about this fact this money and just except our fate to having been screwed over?

Hi Guys

As I have said previously I will pay you once I get any money at all. The TeAtatu sale is progressing not as fast as expected but see below for update (email sent to me yesterday). Would you guys like me to set up a time for you all to come and see me in person to discuss this matter? Or as always call me on mobile 021 362 462

Matt

Hi

All good. Things mostly sorted with XXXX now. Took longer than expected, but as soon as the assignment is done (we have agreed upon it now). XXXX lawyer just looking over it and is going to transpose the draft we agreed upon into another format, we should be ready to go. Other than that things are all moving along, and will settle before or on settlement date. (will be before).

Things with XXXXX moving along, although this will not impact on the sales. am focusing on nailing the first franchise agreement. Any tips on the franchise applications??

Just getting back to Te Atatu, we will get this one done asap. As far as I am concerned though, we are unconditional and will now push forward to settlement. It is very unfortunate that we could not get the agreement with XXXXX wrapped up before the school holidays, as we may have been able to settle straight away. One of the funding parties is away with their kids over the break. In essence their return is weeks before stated settlement date anyhow, but it would have been good for you to be able to put at least one of the three behind you.. Overall, rest assured it is in all our best interests to settle asap and before settlement. Every day those doors are shut, hurts the goodwill of the business. Will keep you informed every step of the way.

Cheers

Hahaha oh god this cracks me up. Honestly that last email was just taking the piss out of Dougini as he called himself, not that I need to explain myself.

Love your new email Geordie...

Id think that my suspicions are justified given that the average credit length in business is 30 days (thats not obviously for customer sales crap were Farmers advertise say a Washing Machine at 12 months interest free). But for business to business transactions, credit cards, that sort of thing.

So yea, wasnt he at one point mentioning selling his houses? lol, I dont see that happening.

:) I am chilled out... i was telling Ferrari guy to chill out, considering that we have just been informed that we should get the money within the next 14 days.

My email was rather neutral in my opinion, as i don't really know what to think of this. just think that we shouldn't really jump to conclusions like Mr Edwards is, saying that hes brewing up evil schemes and such.

idea! - how about we wait said 14 days? ;)

churr. love you too Georgie Dougini

and yeah, rich and happy sounds pretty sorted

I could go on for ever (and i'm sure we all could) just writing, bitching and arguing with ourselves, all night, every night, as the emails roll on in.

I have so much more i could say in reply to the emails circulating, but some times it's best to leave it instead of adding fuel to the fire (no matter how enticing it is - and bloody hell it can be with :P)

If any one has a problem in keeping a negative response to them selves, don't reply to the 'chat room', just reply to them! or talk to me.... (i may be small but small people can achieve big things)
Let's try keep this place to constructive stuff only! Don't like to see my staff (whether they are ex-staff or not) like this.

We all want this over and done with - INCLUDING Matt.

Love most of you (but not you all :P)

Regards
I would rather be poor and happy!

doug, just chill, you dont sound over email [http://gfx1.hotmail.com/mail/w3/pr01/ltr/./emoticons/smile_nerd.gif] people have a right to be suspicious and anxious, when they feel theyve been wronged.
and matt, not emailing us for months didnt help.
you also know that at hell your wages had nothing to do with your work ethics.
why dont we all (including me cause ive done my fair share) just stop bitching for a bit and see what happens

p.s., geordie seems pretty confident we are getting paid, so thats a bit reinsuring.

Dear Mr ferrari_toss_a_lotta (Matt Edward's) & Team

It was great to hear your very unconstructive input of how it is now too late for us to do anything, so i'll come up with a plan called the "lets piss him off.. kick him while he's down and apologizing" project - when he finally does fill us in the loop again. I'm sorry but i couldn't see how that email is going to encourage him to pay us! Especially if what you say is true, when you 'have a feeling' he is not legally required any more?

The only reason i sent this is because the first 3 paragraphs of yours are going on what you think/feel/assume and don't actually know or have any facts about. I KNOW that from this email your not his friend. So don't know why he would tell you or even how you have come about such privileged information about his super evil scheming plans (that may or may not be true). Keep what you don't know to your self as i KNOW it doesn't help any of us!

FYI - I was on $14 dollars per hour and all i did was make pizza's. Maybe your $12.50 duty manager rate says something there?

- It is 60 day's as to which you have time to file a PG (Personal Grievance) against an employer for unfair treatment. 60 days was 05/07/08 So this day has long gone. However the scenario we are going through doesn't fall under this category of the law.

One final question. Would you rather be rich and unhappy... or live a happy life and be poor?

Regards,
I don't do my research, but my dad is a lawyer

Haha, dont you just love it how Matt only emails anyone once the "harsh" emails prop up? I havnt bothered emailing in this yet.
But honesty it is always about the money. If you are going to work for anyone you will need to realise that. Business is all about profit, profit, profit. Easiest way to increasing your profit is to decrease cost. What better way than to take advantage of a group of teenagers how dont really know what they are doing.

How many people realise that there is only a short period in which we can take legal action, I have a feeling it is just past, I cant quite remember the length or when we were released back into the world but either way if Matt can stall us past that date he has no legal obligation to ever pay us.

So while you guys are thinking 'oh itll come as soon as he can get the money', hes most likely thinking 'just one more week and Ill never have to pay those bastards'.

As for his other company's, if you go on the company register website you can see just how many he has had and how many of those have gone into liquidation (also and easy way to eliminate any costs, because if a company liquidates it no longer is a company, thus it cannot pay off debts). Only reason he would have to pay anyone is when there is a contract with him personally not the company.

Also the fact that the Hell's companies he owned never had any assests, they were all in Black Trading Ltd makes it very convenient for the liquidation seen as that the assest of BT Ltd cannot be seized for the debts of Hell's NX, FH, NC etc.

So chances of us actually getting the money Id say are 5% (5% for good faith, but how much of that have we seen, I mean managerial wage of $12.50, youd earn more on your first day at North Beach as a checkout assistant).

Hi Guy's

Just to keep you all updated. Over the past two months I had to settle all my loans with Westpac before I could do or pay anything else. On Wednesday this week Westpac was settled and I now am free to sell all the stores. Currently I have offers on most of them. Despite what you have heard I have not had the money to pay this but I would say that all staff worst case will be paid within the next 14 days.
Again I am so very sorry for the delay and can assure you I am doing everything in my power to resolve this as quickly as possible.

Kind regards
Matt

P.S. Anyone who would like to call me to discuss this in more detail is welcome to my number is 021 362 462.

Hi Guys

As the people who I have talk to would know I really want this sorted and will do whatever it takes to make sure that you all get paid....In saying this up till now that's nothing more than a promise that I hope to keep. So after reading your emails I spent a bit of time as I do trying to come up with a master plan.

So here it is mad but true....

I currently have a purchaser lined up to buy the assets of Hell Great North Road to re open it as a Hell. He's offering 150k which is more than enough to pay you all the holiday pays (holiday pays come to just on 50k). This purchaser has been with the hell network for the past six years and would do a great job at running this store. So if you look carefully at who is copied in on this email you will notice the names Dennis Jones and Mark Backhaus these guys are the two who own both Hell and Burger King (Colin's Bosses and not bad guys). My offer to them is as follows I will give them the assets of Great North Road for free. In return they will undertake to pay you your holiday pays and make sure no one is out of pocket. And to make sure it happens the money will be paid to Bruce Johnson trust account he is my lawyer (and copied in on this email as well). Then he will distribute the holiday pays to each of you. The only other condition is that Mark and Dennis release me from my franchise agreements and restraint of trade so that Geordie doesn't have to pay for my kid's nappies and my smokes...

So here is the dumbed down version for all you primitive folks

Burger King/ Hell pay your holidays at a cost of 50k then they sell the store for 150k to the new owner they make 100k you get paid I get nothing and ask nothing except the respect of all of you.

My lawyer is copied in on this email and can tell you that these assets are owned by me personally. That the sale of Hell Great North Road is a real one. He would also tell you this is a legally binding offer. I personally guarantee the contents and commitments that I have made in this email and if TPF (Mark Backhaus and Dennis Jones) reply to this email and say it is a deal I will be at there office signing the paperwork tomorrow and will do everything in my power to get this sorted by the end of this week.

I await a reply and apologies that this is taking so long.

Kindest regards

Matthew Blomfield

PS. Don't let anybody tell you its not about the money because for most people it is.

God Bless

Going on a limb here, But im going to assume when he can afford to.. I take it you either Never got Matt's reply to the other smart arse, Or are incapable of reading and/or showing patience.

He cant afford to pay us until he gets paid. Two points arise from this

- A) Im sure we will be told when Matt/Geordie Know any more details
- B) He currently has no Physical Money to pay you with..

Either you have another job, And should just understand we will be paid when we can be, Or you dont and you should go on the benefit/find one. Sitting and Moaning Realy wont help. Or atleast in the broad sence. Try personalising you email to Matt and Geordie Directly.

Anywho,

Empathy is your friend

Empathy is the capacity to recognise or understand another's state of mind or emotion. It is often characterized as the ability to "put oneself into another's shoes", or to in some way experience the outlook or emotions of another being within oneself. It may be described metaphorically as an emotional kind of resonance or mirroring

After hearing rumors of staff stealing and looting stock from the store i decided to have a look for myself over the cameras!
Between Friday and Sunday there was clear footage of staff walking out with stock - some even by the box load...

This is a one time opportunity to cleanse you soul.
Those of you who stole (even be it a paper clip) have until Monday 12th May to make contact with my self and arrange for the goods to be returned!

Failure to do so - Matt and myself will be going straight to the police to lay charges. Man up and you walk away with a slap on the wrist and no further action taken.
Save the embarrassment of family, friends, other workmates and new/future employers being made well aware of you actions. Your actions over the next 3 days could follow you for the rest of your life.

Spread the word to others who may not receive this in time!!!
